In accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), the Government moved for detention in this case. Written Statement of Reasons for Detention

I find that the accusations in the indictment and the information submitted in the Pretrial Services Agency report establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and by clear and convincing evidence that no conditions will assure the safety of the community.

I conclude that the following factors specified in 18 U.S.C. § 3142(g) are present and are to be taken into account:

1. Defendant is a 31 year old citizen of Nicaragua who is resident alien in the United States. She lives in Houston with her mother who is also a resident alien and her two daughters, who are U.S. citizens. The father of her children is incarcerated. Her grandfather also resides in the Houston area. She has regular contact with her father, a resident alien living in Alaska, a sister living in Boston, and a brother living in Las Vegas. She has extensive family living in Brazil and Nicaragua, but denies regular contact with them. She is unemployed, but previously worked in a tattoo shop. She admits substance abuse.
2. Defendant is accused of conspiracy to possess with intent to distribute 500 grams or more of cocaine and possession with intent to distribute 5 kilograms of more of cocaine in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 841 and 846. She faces a potential penalty of 5 to 40 years in prison. She may be subject to deportation if convicted.
3. Defendant has no known criminal history in the United States. A .22 handgun registered in her name and a .380 handgun belonging to her boyfriend were found in her home. Wiretap and surveillance evidence suggest significant participation in drug trafficking activity.
4. Defendant also actively participated in a breakout plot to free her husband, a co-defendant, from jail.
5. Defendant has significant family ties overseas, and a lack of stable employment or other financial ties to this community.
6. Defendant has not rebutted the statutory presumptions that she is a flight risk and a danger to the community.
7. There is no condition or combination of conditions of release which would assure the appearance of the defendant in court or the safety of the community. Detention is ordered.

Directions Regarding Detention

It is therefore ORDERED that the defendant is committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with all court proceedings.

Signed at Houston, Texas, on November 2, 2009.
